

American Nuclear Society

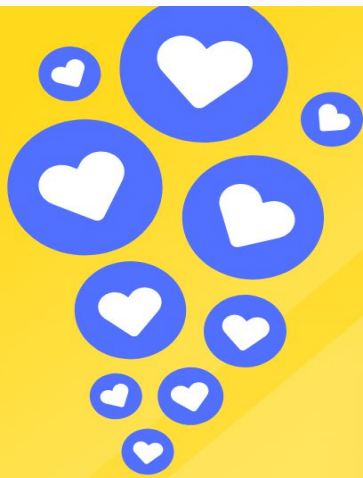

DC Section

MONTH YEAR

FY 25-26 Business Meeting

Agenda

THANKS FOR HOSTING

5:00 pm Happy Hour

6:00 pm Dinner

6:30 pm DC ANS Business Meeting: Amber Johnson

6:45 pm Presentation by Mark Peters, ANS President

7:20 pm Presentation by FY26-27 Chair: Steve Mirsky

8:00 pm End of Program

Science Fairs

Thanks to our judges for volunteering their time and expertise!

- Northern Virginia Regional Science and Engineering Fair
- Fairfax County Regional Science and Engineering Fair
- Montgomery County Science Fair
- Prince George's Area Science Fair

$1275 Awarded!!

Scholarships

ANS Washington DC Local
Section Jeffrey A. Gorman
Undergraduate Scholarship

Brij B. Bhagat - Virginia Tech

Washington DC Local Section
George P. Shultz and James W.
Behrens Graduate Scholarship

Nuvin A. Bazid - University of Wisconsin-Madison

This program is open undergraduate and graduate students who have a home address within 250 miles of Washington, D.C. (as measured from the White House).

$3000 each

Additional Highlights

Dwight D. Eisenhower Medal

Pictured above are Susan Eisenhower, Jim Behrens, and the 2025 recipient of the medal Laura Holtgate

Teacher Workshop

Hosted a teacher workshop with ANS on the N.S. Savannah. Participants were given a geiger counter and a cloud chamber kit.

Website is active

<https://dc.ans.org/> Please contact us on the form if you would like to be more involved!

DC-ANS Executive Committee FY26-27

Steve Mirsky
Chair

Stefani Buster
Vice Chair

Jim Behrens
Secretary

Neal Mann
Treasurer

Mark Peters-ANS President

- 72nd ANS President
- Focus on workforce development, standards, and policy
- “As a society of nuclear professionals, one part of our role is to be a voice of objective, technically sound information and advice to the public and to the government”
- Nuclear News July 2026